SCAM ALERT - Jury Duty Scam

Scammers are calling or messaging people claiming they missed jury duty and now face arrest unless they pay a fine immediately. They may use real names of law enforcement officers or even spoof real phone numbers to sound convincing.

Here is how to spot the scam:

- You will NEVER be asked to pay a fine over the phone or by gift card, wire transfer, cash app or ATM.
- No legitimate government agency will demand personal info or payment over the phone to avoid arrest.

What to do:

If you get a call or message like this, don't respond. Don't pay or give them any personal information. If you think a call or message could be real, check the court's website for jury duty information or call the court directly at a number you know is correct.

Remember - NEVER give out personal or financial information to unsolicited callers.

Report the scam to local law enforcement or the FTC at ReportFraud.ftc.gov

Stay informed, stay alert, and share this to protect others.
